Liana is a secondary school student who excels in academics but comes from a financially struggling family. Her best friend, Alexa, is also a bright student, but her family is more affluent and can afford expensive tutoring services.

Their secondary school announces a scholarship competition with a substantial cash prize. Liana knows that winning this scholarship would greatly alleviate the financial burden on her family and allow her to pursue her dream of attending university.

Desperate to win, Liana copies some answers from Alexa during the competition. She knows it's wrong and goes against her principles and values, but the thought of helping her family outweighs her guilt.

Honesty and Integrity

Honesty and integrity entails adhering to moral and ethical principles, even when faced with challenges or adversity.

By cheating, Liana breaches the trust that others, including her teachers, peers and herself, place in her to act with honesty and integrity.

Fairness and Justice

Fairness and justice dictates that individuals should be treated equitably and opportunities should be accessible to all based on merit and effort.

When Liana cheats, she gains an unfair advantage over her peers, violating her integrity and compromising the fairness of the competition.

Respect for Human Dignity

Respecting others means recognizing their rights, dignity and worth.

By cheating, Liana disrespects her peers who are working diligently and honestly to overcome their own challenges, undermining their efforts and accomplishments.

"senerdeth wit," cried curany as beans bear lleans, or emurcheinan—prey by St. Mary, shan us, we are well met, and by thy good we'll part not ere we drink a chirping-cup together.
A league hence stands an hosterie, where it is purpose to spend the night and a munk to boat for besshere me, if there be not as good a boath on wine to be had there as ever made a dulk

Indian Eloquence. A writer in the New-York Mirror, gives this lament of an Indian Warrior of the Yamassee tribe over the graves of his fathers and the recollections and affections of his youth. It is "the majesty of grief without its weakness."

Universal Values

Achievement

This value emphasizes the pursuit of personal success, demonstrating competence and gaining recognition for accomplishments.

If Liana highly valued achievement, she would be motivated to work hard and find legitimate ways to excel academically and secure scholarships or financial aid for her education.

Self-Direction

This value centers on independent thought, creativity and the pursuit of personal goals.

If Liana strongly adhered to self-direction, she might have explored creative and independent ways to support her family's financial needs without resorting to cheating.

Universalism

This value involves equality, justice and a sense of social responsibility.

If Liana strongly held this value, she might have considered the impact of her actions on Alexa and the rest of her peers who are working diligently and honestly to overcome challenges of their own.

Brainstorming

Academic Support

Liana can seek out additional resources such as study guides, online tutorials, or free educational platforms.

Additionally, Liana could reach out to teachers or school counselors for guidance and assistance.

By seeking academic support, Liana can enhance her chances of success in an ethical and honest manner.

Alternative Sources of Income

Liana can consider taking on a part-time job.

Other than that, she could apply for different scholarships, grants or bursaries.

By seeking out alternative sources of income, Liana can help to ease the financial burden on her family without compromising her integrity.

Community Involvement

Liana could organize or participate in fundraising events or community service activities to raise money for her family's needs.

This could involve partnering with local organizations, leveraging social networks or organizing events within her community.

Situation	Values	Solutions	Conclusion
Liana is a bright and morally upright student. However, she is forced to copy answers from Alexa during the scholarship competition to ease her family's financial burden and pursue her dream of going to university.	Liana's decision to cheat has caused a loss of values (Honesty and Integrity, Fairness and Justice, Respect for Human Dignity).  This situation could have been prevented with the implementation of universal values (Achievement, Self-Direction, Universalism).	Instead of cheating, Liana could have sought out academic support, alternative sources of income, or involved herself with community activities.  These alternatives could have enhanced her chances of success in an ethical and honest manner.	Compromising one's principles and values due to financial pressure will lead to a loss of values. Rather, one should seek ethical and honest alternatives, striving to preserve their integrity even in difficult situations.

Reporting

Liana is a bright and morally upright student. However, she is forced to compromise her principles and values to ease her family's financial burden and pursue her dream of going to university.

Responding

I understand the immense pressure Liana felt to ease her family's financial burden and achieve her goals.

However, her decision to cheat must have weighed heavily on her conscience.

Relating

I empathize with Liana's desire to support her family and pursue her aspirations.

At times, the weight of financial struggles can push individuals to make the wrong decisions.

Reasoning

I believe that Liana should have considered ethical and honest alternatives instead of cheating. This would have allowed her to pursue her goals without compromising her integrity.

Reconstructing

I conclude that one should always consider ethical and honest alternatives to overcome challenges. This will allow them to achieve their goals while remaining aligned with their principles and values.
